Notes

As the operator of the FPSO Umuroa, a successful drilling campaign will probably ensure continued operations via an extension of our current contract with Tamarind. This will directly ensure continued employment for our New Zealand personnel. In addition, there is probable additional economic benefit to New Zealand via our use of New Zealand vendors for good and services. For the avoidance of doubt, we have no involvement in the drilling campaign nor do we have any position on the planning, execution and consequential effects of said drilling operations. We look forward to a continued relationship with Tamarind.
