MINUTE AND DIRECTION 2: PROVISION OF WITNESSES' FOR EXPERT CONFERENCING

Expert Conferencing

1. Following the receipt of Submitters' evidence, the Special Tribunal has indicatively identified which groupings and party's witnesses will be expected to attend expert conferencing. These groupings are set out in Appendix 1 to this minute.
2. For this proposal, the primary objectives of expert conferencing are to assist the Tribunal by narrowing and clarifying issues to avoid repetition and to reduce hearing time.
3. Not every topic will be subject to expert conferencing. Conferencing will only occur where narrowing or clarification of issues will assist the Tribunal for the Hearing.
4. The date of caucusing has been set as 9 and 10 April 2018, in accordance with the timetable contained in the Tribunal Procedures.
5. Caucusing will be facilitated by Chancery Green, and will be conducted via teleconferencing. All attendees are requested to communicate their contact details to Chancery Green via the methods outlined in Appendix 1.

For the Tribunal: Camilla Owen

Dated: 6 April 2018
