Notes

When I visited these springs, I was overwhelmed by their beauty and after swimming in them I felt something very cleansing, almost spiritual. For these springs to be jeopardised with something that can be prevented is very distressing. If we allow this happen, when do we draw the line? How much more of our treasured environments are we going to continue to lose? We cannot stand by and let this occur, especially for short term gains.

Clause

I/we seek the following recommendation from the Special Tribunal to the Minister for the Environment

Position

Grant the order
