Notes

The beauty, uniqueness and spiritual value of Pupu Springs to all people of NZ make it a treasure we must protect far into the future. There are few places left in NZ where the water quality remains untouched - and even at Pupu, it is not untouched. Higher nitrate levels are creeping in. Each one of these special places lost is like losing a jewel in the crown. Soon the crown will have little sparkle left ... and NZ will have little credibility as an untouched and green place. I strongly urge the panel to grant this order to protect Pupu springs and its catchment.
