Notes

Our future generations require us to protect their heritage. It would be irresponsible for us to continue to spread our pollution more than we already have. We owe it to our children's children to return our country to its most pure state where possible. If we continue down the same path we will get the same outcome which will become irreversible in the future. We must love nature to preserve it.

Clause

I/we seek the following recommendation from the Special Tribunal to the Minister for the Environment

Position

Grant the order

Notes

Clause
