Notes

The quality of our fresh water is of paramount importance to New Zealand, as it is to all countries. Historically we have been very careless of this resource. With what we understand now about the importance of fresh water to our survival, it is time that we all started to take this seriously and prioritise the improvement and protection of this most valuable of our country's resources.

Clause

I/we seek the following recommendation from the Special Tribunal to the Minister for the Environment

Position

Grant the order
