Notes

Years ago I signed the Maruia petition to save our indigenous beech forest. Here I am again, more than 30 years later, asking a panel of people who presumably love our country as I do, to stop yet more of our wils, native places from being destroyed. It sadden me beyond words that we are still having this debate. We all know that once these treasures are gone, we cannot recreate them. They are lost for all time. Do the right, the moral, the only thing and stop any tampering with Te Waikoropupū Springs.
