Notes

I have visited the springs only once but it was a very special and memorable experience for me. I recall the magnificent water clarity and the magical feeling of peering deep into the springs and seeing everything beneath the waters so clear and vibrant. The springs are known far and wide in nz as a very special place to go, a 'must see' if you are ever anywhere near by. This water conservation order is a vital step in the ongoing challenge we have to protect the springs so we can all enjoy their intrinsic beauty now and into the future.
