Notes

It's time that we started protecting our natural resources as at the rate we are going there will be none left. Let's call time on destroying the amazing and beautiful resources we have been stripped by big business. Our children deserve to inherit a country that is still rich in them not left barren by a few greedy individuals at the top. I want my grandchildren and great grandchildren and so on and so on to be able to enjoy there marvels not just hear stories about them or have to look at photos and try to imagine what it must of been like.
