Notes

I believe Te Waikoropupu Springs are a symbol of New Zealand's natural wild beauty - something that must never be violated by pollution or thought of as irrelevant to New Zealand's image to the rest of the world. Such places are few and far between and we cannot afford to allow them to be affected by farming or industrial interests. My first visit to the Springs will remain a clear and stunning impression of New Zealand's natural scenic beauty - one of the highlights of 70 years in this wonderful country.
