Notes

I'm a New Zealander living in Australia and sadly have never seen these beautiful springs but I hope to soon and it would be devastating to lose such a beautiful place. The photos are so lovely. We have a unique country with so much beauty and water is so precious. Not only are they beautiful they are so important for the surrounding environment please protect them, there is enough ugliness today and the springs are such a treasure once lost can never be the same again. The world is becoming so materialistic and greedy , people are stressed etc we need these sort of places.
