Notes

I visit Waikoropupu on every trip to Golden Bay, and have brought overseas visitors to see this absolute marvel. Too many of our waterways are suffering from farming activity, which needs careful management and oversight. The value of our image of a clean green NZ contributes to the economy as well, and will continue to do so as the rest of the world drowns in plastic. Keeping our country clean is of utmost importance. Maori and pakeha together must cooperate in the kaitiakitanga of our whenua, for future generations.
