Notes

I completely agree with the applicants that the waters of Te Waikoropupū Springs and associated water bodies are outstanding, for all the reasons that they describe. The area of the Springs has a very deep sense of spiritual peace and beauty that is unlike anything I have ever experienced anywhere else, and completely matches the scientific view of the area as one of great ecological importance. Everything about this very special place is unique and it is vitally important that we preserve it for us and for all future generations.
