Notes

I have visited the Pupu springs several times in since 1994 and have always thought that they were one of the precious locations where New Zealand actually felt 100% pure. It would be terrible if we let the water quality in these springs degrade as we have let so many of our formerly pristine waterways. I support taking all possible measures to preserve the water quality and unique beauty of the springs for future generations to enjoy.

Clause

I/we seek the following recommendation from the Special Tribunal to the Minister for the Environment

Position

Grant the order
