Notes

My individual submission supports the protection of Te Waikoropupu Springs and associated waterbodies. Te Waikoropupu springs holds significant historical and cultural value to the people of New Zealand. It also holds significant spiritual and physical value to the people and the land. It is these components that are essential to the health and wellbeing of the people of New Zealand. These values can all be proven by listening to the voices of the people. The intrinsic values that this water aquifer holds is irreplaceable. It is essential to protect it. Lets be the people who protect the most important resource on earth; the water. Lets be the country that protects the people's wellbeing; our health. Lets be the world that protects the earth; the future. Protect the future, Protect Te Waikoropupu Springs and Associated Waterbodies.
