Notes

New Zealand claims to be clean and green. People come here from all over the world to enjoy the beautiful country we have. We need to protect our country from environmental damage and exploitation. Water is finite what we have on this planet is all we have and New Zealand is blessed with a good share of it. We have to play our part and keep it clean and flowing natural. Waikoropupu Springs is an important and beautiful part of our waterways home to many forms of life and irreplaceable. It must be protected for future generations.
