Notes

I may be living overseas at the moment, but New Zealand is my heart, and these beautiful springs are a sacred place. In a land which such incredible beauty I'm always struck by how hard New Zealand tries to be like everywhere else - like a world thirsty for beauty and calm will so little left. There is plenty of destruction in the world, plenty of large industry, plenty of gems being mined. Leave what's precious intact, protect this spring and so many more natural treasures, and the world will increasingly want to be more and more like you. You will be the proudest place on Earth. Destroy it, use it for commercial gain, and you will be as much in pain as the rest of the world. The world needs more love, not more large commerce. The world needs more nature, not more industry. Don't be like Trump.
