Are you a trade competitor?

Please select the appropriate option.

I am not a person who could gain an advantage in trade competition through this submission TICK	I am a person who would gain an advantage in trade competition through this submission and am directly affected by an effect of the plan change that adversely affects the environment and does not relate to trade competition or the effects of trade competition
---	--

What are you submitting on?

You can submit on specific parts of Water Plan Change 8 or the whole plan change.

I am submitting on the whole of Plan Change 8	I am submitting on specific parts of Plan Change 8 (please detail below) TICK
The specific parts of the matter that my submission relates to are:
7.D.9 Enable farming activities while reducing their adverse environmental effects. (b) Managing stock access to water bodies to: (i) Progressively exclude stock from lakes, wetlands, and continually flowing river. 7D9 (d) Managing the risk of sediment run off from farming activities by: (ii) Limiting areas and duration of exposed soil 14.6.1.1 Permitted activities: No resource consent required The use of land for intensive grazing is a permitted activity providing: (a) The total cumulative area of the landholding used for intensive grazing is the lesser of: (i) 100 hectares; or (ii) 10% of the total cumulative area of the landholding.

What is your view on Plan Change 8 or the specific parts listed above?

Please select one, if you have multiple views state clearly in the comments box below.

Support	Neutral	Oppose TICK
The reasons for my view(s) are:
7.D.9 b (i) Enable farming activities while reducing their adverse environmental effects. Managing stock access to water bodies to Progressively exclude stock from lakes, wetlands, and continually flowing river. Fencing waterways on hill country like mine will not be of any environmental benefit as we are a extensive property – stock impacting on waterways is nil compared to natural weather events, but the cost of fencing would be huge relative to the size of my business and for absolutely no environmental gain. It is likely the fences would need to be replaced after any major flooding. It would be totally uneconomical to do so. 7D9 (d) (ii) Managing the risk of sediment run off from farming activities by limiting areas and duration of exposed soil. “The new NES regulations relating to intensive winter grazing includes a practice standard to require that bare ground in paddocks subject to winter grazing must be re-planted as soon as practicable after livestock have grazed the land’s annual forage crop, but no later than 1 October of the same year.” It is not reasonably practicable to expect us to have bare ground re-sown by 1 Oct of the same year. Weather and ground conditions play a huge part in the agronomy calender. To plant by 1 Oct would also not suit the growth curve of our higher altitude farm for some seed species. Permitted activities: No resource consent required 14.6.1.1 The use of land for intensive grazing is a permitted activity providing: (a) The total cumulative area of the landholding used for intensive grazing is the lesser of: (i) 100 hectares; or (ii) 10% of the total cumulative area of the landholding. I see this rule as totally unecessary. It is an added burden of paperwork for many farmers like myself who already have extensive administrative jobs and compliance rules to adhere to in many facets of our business. To also have apply for resource consent in order to ensure we have enough winter feed to keep our animals alive is totally short sighted.

What decision would you like the Environment Court to make?

Approve Plan Change 8	Approve Plan Change 8with amendments TICK	Decline Plan Change 8
The reasons for my view and/or any amendments I am seeking are:

7.D.9 b (i)

Measure water as it enters and as it leaves a property to assess the level of pollution and those who need to can improve their methods and efficiency to achieve appropriate environmental standards.

7D9 (d) (ii) - Delete change

Permitted activities: No resource consent required 14.6.1.1 – delete change

Do you wish to be heard in support of your submission?
